

Leigh Steinberg Human Relations Institute Application

Description:

There are two types of Human Relations Institutes: Introductory Day and Advanced Overnight Institutes. Introductory Day Institutes are designed for participants with little or no experience with human relations or social justice programs. Advanced Overnight Institutes are designed for participants who have been involved in human relations programs in a school, community or human relations organization.

Important Information:

- There is no cost for the program due to the generous support of sports agent Leigh Steinberg.
- Meals and snacks will be provided each day.
- 25 students will be accepted into each Institute.
- Introductory Day Institutes are scheduled from 8:30 am - 2:30 pm each day, times are subject to change.
- Participants must provide their own transportation to and from the Introductory Day Institutes.
- Overnight Advanced Institutes are held at BearPaw Preserve located in the San Bernardino Mountains.
- Transportation will be provided to and from the OC Human Relations Office and BearPaw Preserve.

Application Essays:

Essay responses are intended to give OC Human Relations staff an idea of who you are. There is no right or wrong answer for any of the questions.

- Answers may be written, or in the form of artwork, music or any other alternative format.
- Written answers should be no longer than the front of one page.
- Answers may be typed or hand written and will not be judged on spelling or grammar.
- Alternative answers must be accompanied by a brief written explanation and of mailable size.

Introductory Day Institutes - please answer both questions below:

1. Choose a person(s), past present, who has inspired you to make a difference. How has that person(s) inspired you? Please give examples.
2. What new things do you hope to learn during the Institute? Please give examples.

Advanced Overnight Institutes - please answer the question below:

1. What is the most important thing you have learned from your previous human relations experience? What have you done with this knowledge in your school or community? Please give examples.
